

Model Main

A Diffuser is a way to display content of type marketing (video or image) or informative (text message). It is assigned to screens and as the screens knows which RunningScheduler they currently are assigned to, the system knows where to add the new entry. If we want a global diffuser, we assign it to all the screens

